

ASA Philadelphia Chapter Awards in Teaching Excellence (2022-23)

The chapter offers two awards in teaching excellence – one for college or university educators and one for K-12 educators. These Awards are established to honor local educators who have consistently inspired within their students a love and passion for statistics. Nominees should be established within their career, with five or more years of full-time teaching in the greater Philadelphia area. Nominees who have spent longer periods in the greater Philadelphia area (e.g., eight years or more) are preferable. This honorary designation is awarded to a maximum of one college/university educator and a maximum of one K-12 educator each year. The awards committee may give favor to nominees with demonstrated contributions to the ASA Philadelphia Chapter and chapter activities..

The recipient will be chosen based upon the following criteria:

- Sustained commitment to the profession of teaching statistics
- Demonstrated impact on their students, including learning statistical content and their views about the discipline, both in and out of the classroom

A complete nomination package will include:

- A nomination letter up to four pages addressing points in the selection criteria
- The nominee's resume or curriculum vita
- Support letter from students, colleagues, and/or supervisors. Please submit at least two additional supporting letters and at most four additional support letters. Three additional support letters are preferable. Each letter should be no longer than two pages.

The nominator should email the complete nomination package to the ASA Philadelphia Chapter at amstatphiladelphia@gmail.com no later than 11:59 pm, January 16, 2023. Please indicate in the email subject line either “ASA Philadelphia Chapter Award in Teaching Excellence by College or University Educator nomination” or “ASA Philadelphia Chapter Award in Teaching Excellence by K-12 Educator nomination”.

Previous Awardees:
